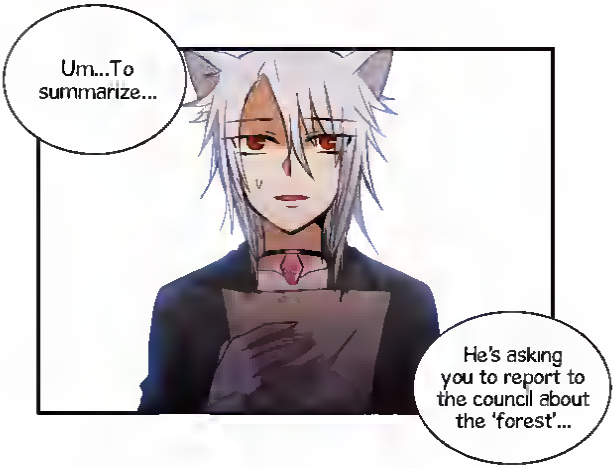
Sir Navarus.
There's a message from Sir Nergal.
...What?



Um...To summarize...
He's asking you to report to the council about the 'forest'...

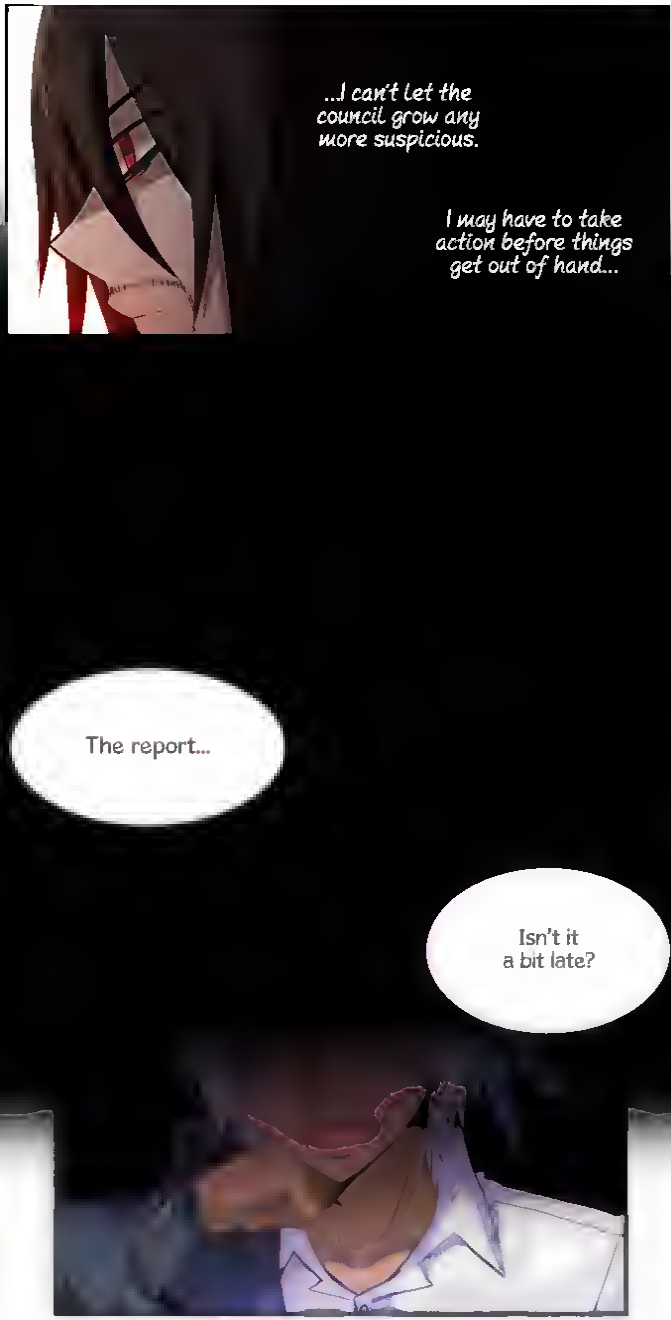
Startled
...Give me that.

Erm...
Very well...

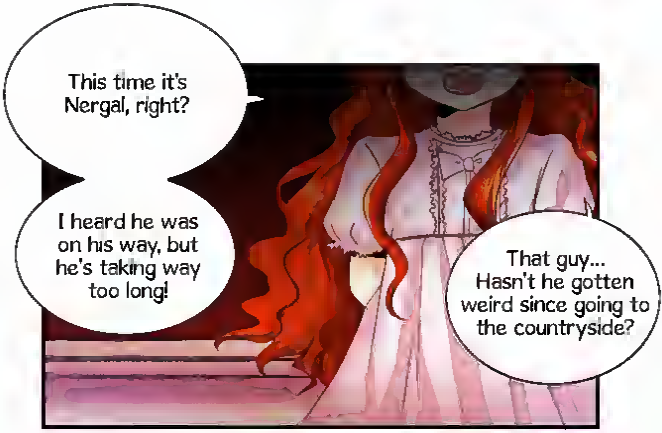
Because of you, I couldn't report this to the council, so I'll let you do it instead! You said you were going to report me, right? Wouldn't it be better to do us both a favor and report them together? I've attached all the information you'll need.
PS You won't get away next time (middle finger)
Insolent bastard.

But he's correct...
Sylvia, you do the job.
M-me?!
You're the only one available.

Nergal has always been an unpredictable fellow...
It's a pain. I never know what he'll do next
Y-yes, sir...
Good...



...I can't let the council grow any more suspicious.
I may have to take action before things get out of hand...
The report...
Isn't it a bit late?



This time it's Nergal, right?
I heard he was on his way, but he's taking way too long!
That guy... Hasn't he gotten weird since going to the countryside?

...Something might have occurred on his way here.
You shouldn't be so quick to doubt him...
Ah!!! why do you always give that guy special treatment!!

That fox bastard...He sucks.
Perhaps we don't need to give him special treatment anymore?
Our goddess must've...
Forgotten about that fox bastard already, right?

Seere?

H-huh?!
What's wrong? You're always spacing out these days.

I-it's nothing.
Why did you call me?
Um... Just... Do you have time after school?
Let's get together and have fun.

we'll play games and eat lots of delicious things!!
It'll be fun!!
Lark, you . aren't preparing for the additional exams?
You failed them..

S-sorry. Want me to help you study?

Oh, it's Bathory.
Are you busy these days? I haven't seen you in a while.
Of course--The atmosphere in the student council is no joke.

It's always those three. They're the problem!
It's like a cold war.
pour
By three, do you mean Setz, Karne, and Nirvana?

Yeah... After Neal and Karne went off somewhere, they turned icy.
I can see the question mark on Setz's face.
Still, he works as hard as he can and never questions them. He's an idiot.
Ahaha... That's Setz.

looks around
By the way...

You were waiting for Lark? Why?

...I haven't seen him since then.
sigh

!!!
Since then?

Yeah. Not since Nergal came a week ago.

Perhaps... I shouldn't have said anything after all...

...Well, he is a human.
It makes sense that he'd be scared if vampires have to leave this world, right?

But the vampires who helped create this world... The ones who're still around today...
..Are mostly friendly to humans.
Because they agreed with Kamilla's ideals.

At first, of course, there would be chaos. But the vampires outside seem to have already disappeared. We should be able to coexist.
And even if that's not the case . Solving the problem is our job. It's not something Lark should be worrying about.
This research is the answer vampires have searched ages for, but never found.
It's something nearly impossible even for me, a vampire with the 'development' ability--It's likely that even after another hundred years, I still won't succeed.
But Navarus promised me that he wouldn't do anything before the research is complete.

...Lark will die long before a hundred years have passed...
He has nothing to worry about

...Hey.
Shouldn't you be saying these things to the person in question, hmm?

Saying them to me won't do anything.
That's...true.

Lark...

Doesn't need to worry about anything...

A dream?

You are not make her sad.

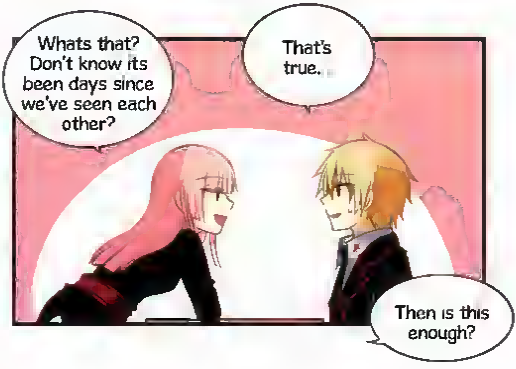
Hey!
What are you doing today?

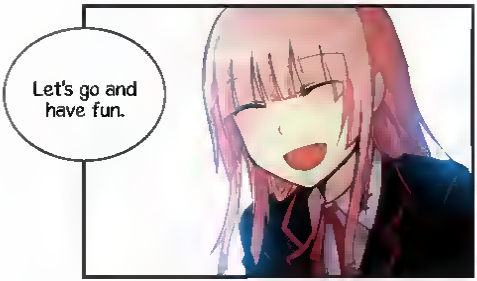
..Eh?

It's Bathory Sunbae.
Bathory of the student council?
mur
mur
mur
mur
Why is she here?

Wow, this is troublesome.
W...what are you here for?

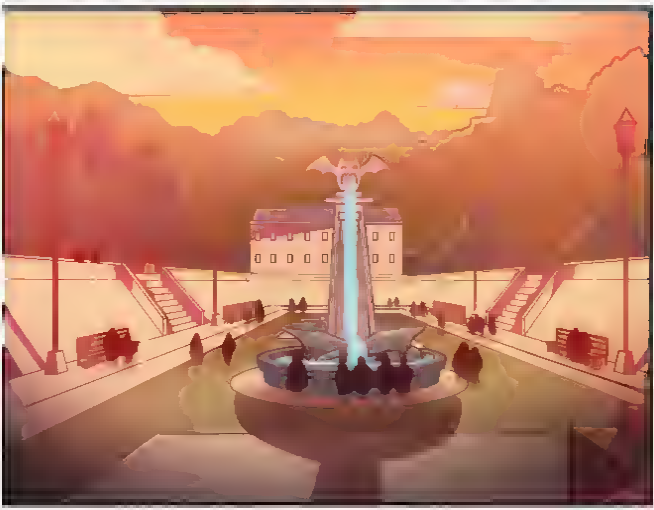


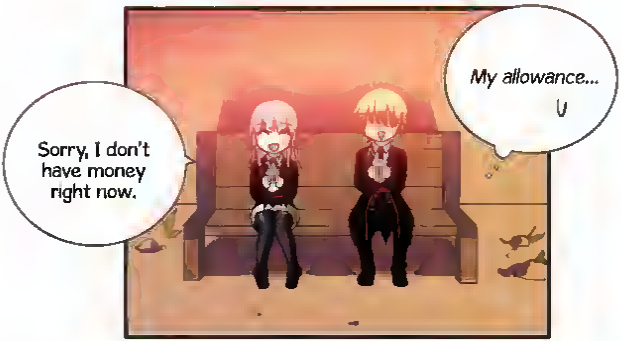
Whats that? Don't know its been days since we've seen each other?
That's true.
Then is this enough?



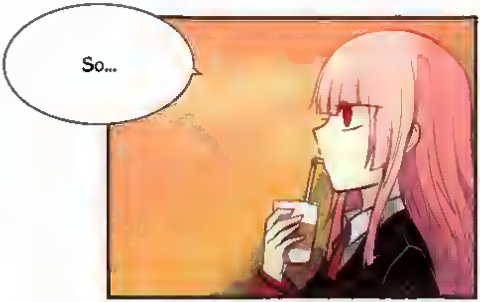
Let's go and have fun.

What??





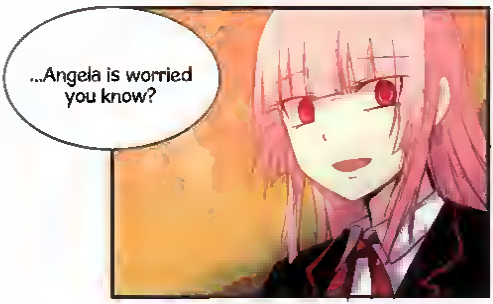
Sorry, I don't have money right now.
My allowance... U



So...

What are you up to nowadays?
Well...lately I just...

Don't you have to take the make-up exams?
You entered first place and now this?
Ack~!! I know! It's just that I was lucky and got sunlight!
...You were really lucky.
Y-yeah...

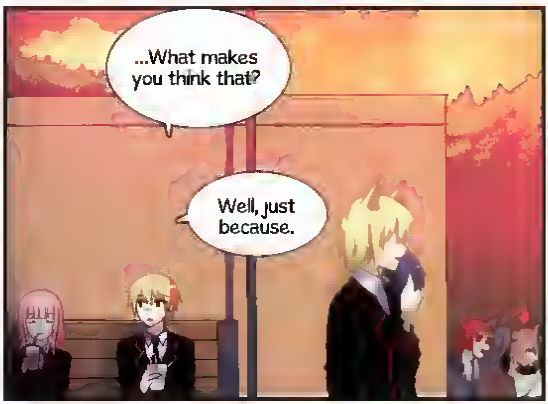


...Angela is worried you know?

!!

Why are you avoiding Angela?

Are you scared of her?



...What makes you think that?
Well, just because.

But really, you haven't shown up for a whole week, even though you used to show up every other day
And it started after that incident

...I just needed some time to think About me and Angela...

There was a time when I thought she was a first generation.

And it turns out she really was all along—

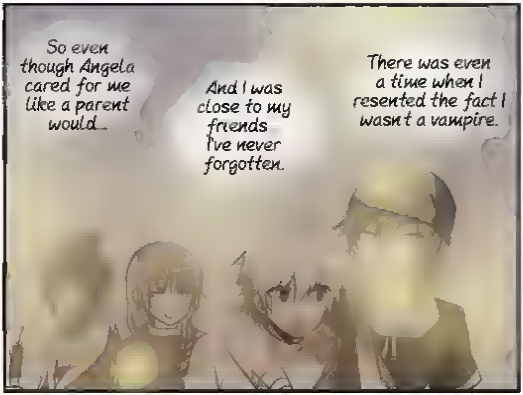
She must have lived a long time, right...?

Incomparably long to the time I've been alive...

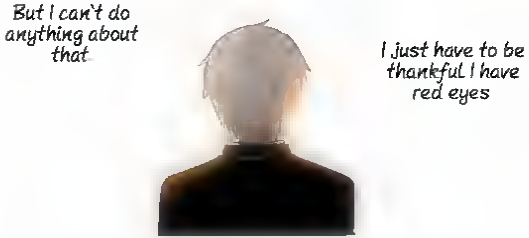
I am human.

I've never forgotten that fact
Because she's always there to remind me.

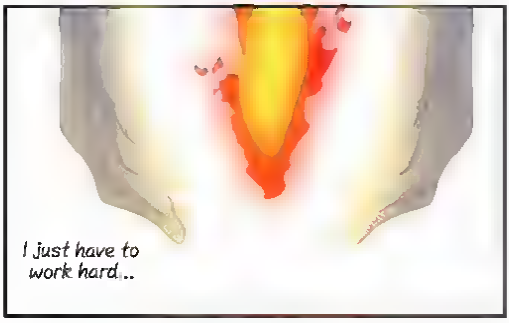
I'm fundamentally different than them



So even though Angela cared for me like a parent would...
And I was close to my friends I've never forgotten.
There was even a time when I resented the fact I wasn't a vampire.



But I can't do anything about that.
I just have to be thankful I have red eyes



At any rate this world is one where vampires are like humans

Everyone will grow old and die alongside me

So I decided not to think about it anymore

But Angela will...

...Angela will always live on as she does now... even after I die, right?
And she'll forget that time when she lived with me...

When I thought about that, suddenly it became difficult to see her face...

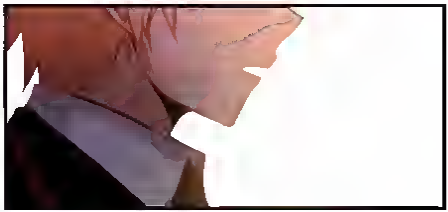
...Well, I understand.
Because if I'm normal, don't have much time to live.

WHAT!?
SHOUT
You startled me. Why are you so surprised?

I'm about 200 years old.
I'll probably die soon.
...Even though I've finally found Angela

You still have decades to live.
Can't you be satisfied with that?



...Um, sorry...
Hehe~ about what?
...No, that...

Have you spent some time thinking?
Then go to Angela She's waiting for you ...Really, it's one thing to say it.

CLANG
But what...

Uh...Is the tea good?
should I do about this awkwardness!!
Yes. it's unique.

...Yeah.

Although it's been only a week,

it felt like several hundred years.

Time has no big meaning to us first generations.
The only thing that has meaning is the people around us.

People that live the same time and share the same memories.
It has been a constant stream of pain for us after the creation of the world.

The children we gave birth to died first and we lived on watching over our descendants.
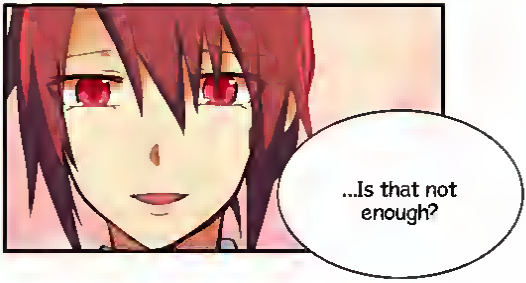
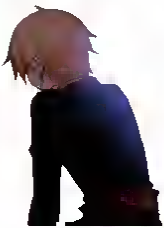
I hated that so much.
That's why I never procreated and have no offspring.
...But now even my clan is gone.

It might be selfish of me to try and destroy this world.

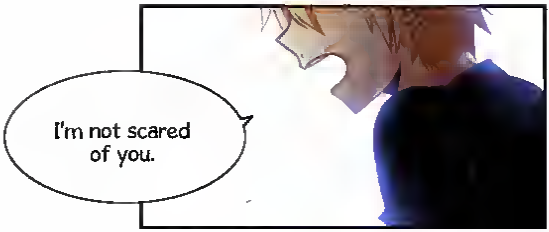
But Lark, that's something in the distant future.
You are like a son to me.
I will work hard so that you won't have to worry about anything.



Are you scared of me?



...That's not it.



I'm not scared of you.

You are...
like a mother to me

Lark.

Even after you die...

I will still be living looking just like this,

missing you.

It's just like a punishment for us.
But I can put up with it, because that's how much I love you, Lark.

be with me

until I die?

Forever..

You are the biggest blessing of my life...

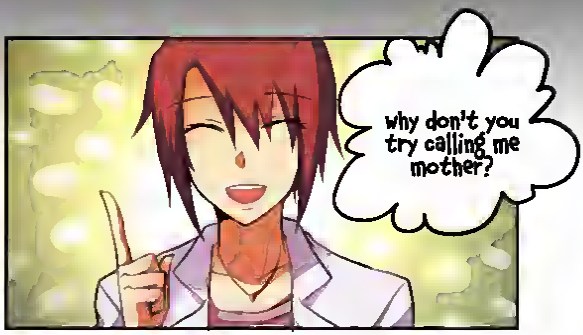
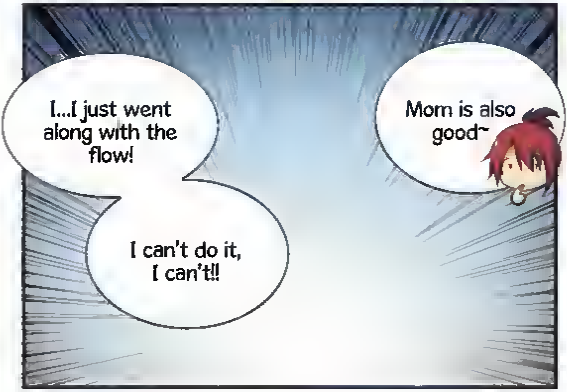
Then...

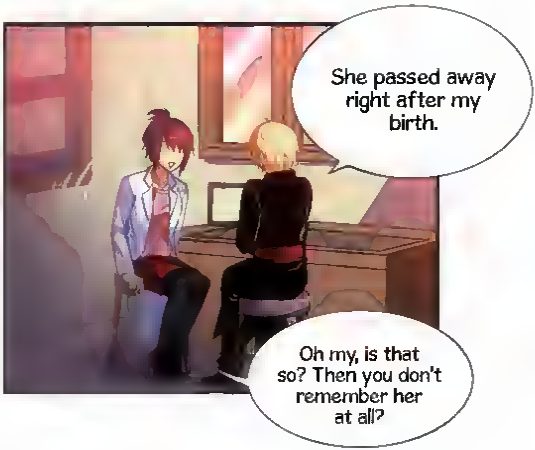


What??
You said it! Just like a mother~!



I...I just went along with the flow!
I can't do it, I can't!!
Mom is also good~

I've never called anyone that!
Huh? Didn't you have a real mother?



She passed away right after my birth.
Oh my, is that so? Then you don't remember her at all?

Why is she so interested in this?
Of course I don't remember.
That's a pity...

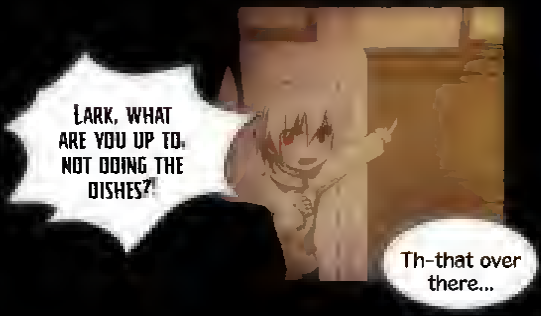
I have seen a picture of her.

Really!? You remember?

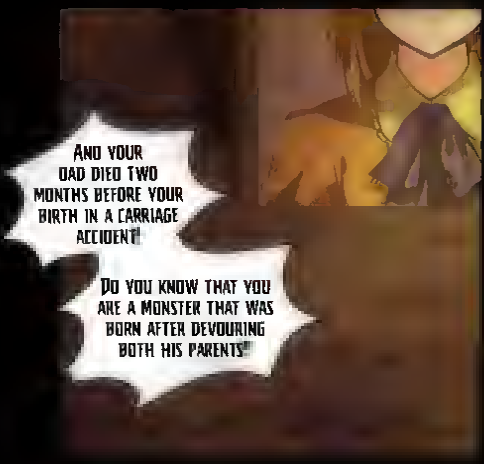
Yes, faintly...



Lark, what are you up to, not doing the dishes?!
Th-that over there...

Is that...
my mom...?

Yes! So you do recognize your own mother!?
My sister died because of a seizure several weeks after giving birth to you!!



AND YOUR DAD DIED TWO MONTHS BEFORE YOUR BIRTH IN A CARRIAGE ACCIDENT!
DO YOU KNOW THAT YOU ARE A MONSTER THAT WAS BORN AFTER DEVOURING BOTH HIS PARENTS!!

Chapter 64

Seere is weird these days.

You think so too?
BITE

She's spacing out a lot,
and doesn't listen or respond.
Yeah, true.
So I asked her about it.

What do you think her response was? She said she had a dream about the kidnapping incident.
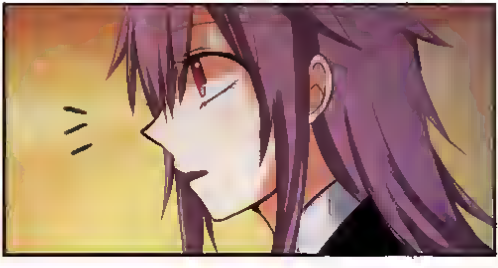
What?!
It's not that clear, apparently it's just a fragment of her memory.
Hmm, I asked her what she remembered most clearly...

She said she saw a woman.

...Seere.



...What are you...

doing here?

It's you, Sia.
.....
I just suddenly...
remembered something.

Maybe the conversation I heard sparked my memory...

Although it's only a little bit...

Just as if my body got smaller and smaller until it ceased to be mine.

It's weird, isn't it?

It is composed of Karmilla's associates that supported her plan for the creation of this world.

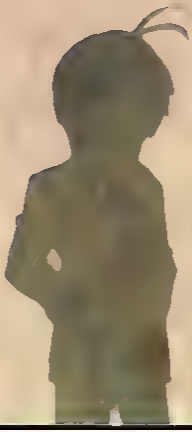
Most of them are first generation vampires.

Among them, three have the most power.

The Miel twins Millefeuille and Chocolat

but their abilities are more powerful than anyone else's and they show no mercy to traitors

Their appearance and behavior is that of children in their early teens.



And lastly, the representative of the council that can restrain these kids.

Gilles de Rais.
Good.
There's nothing out of the ordinary this time as well
This guy is the most dangerous...!!

Sir Navarus is also faring well.

I-I am sorry. I came looking for Lark to have dinner together...

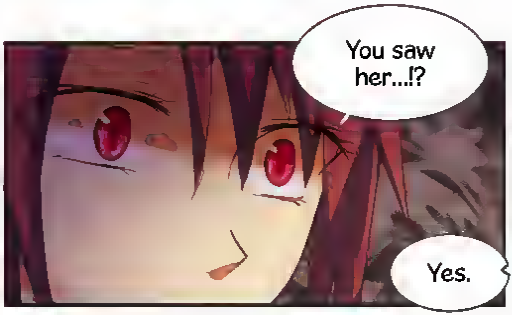
It was a good decision to send Sia and Lark away.
So how can I help you...?
You're probably not just here to tell me that you overheard us.

.....

Teacher...
Karmilla might still be alive.

...Why do you think that?

Because I saw her.



You saw her...!?
Yes.

When I was little I got kidnapped and...

I was taken me to a certain place. Although...

I managed to escape shortly after, but...

I can't remember anything else, but...

I remember that one thing.

A woman shining inside a crystal and a voice that told me

'The name of this woman is Karmilla.'

What's this...? What the heck is this?

A woman...inside a crystal...? Could that really be Karmilla?

With the creation of this world Karmilla should've ceased to exist...

And whose voice could that have been...?

...Miss Angela's story earlier was a little difficult to understand, but...

I agree.

The annihilation of the Erzebet clan that is recorded as just an accident...
Although it is already history,
it must still be a reality to you.

You're really... smart.

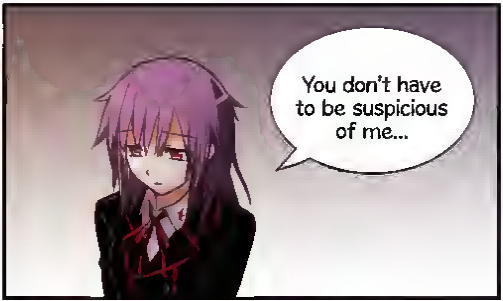
What are you thinking?



You don't have to be suspicious of me...

I simply sympathize with you.

So I wanted to tell you what I know.

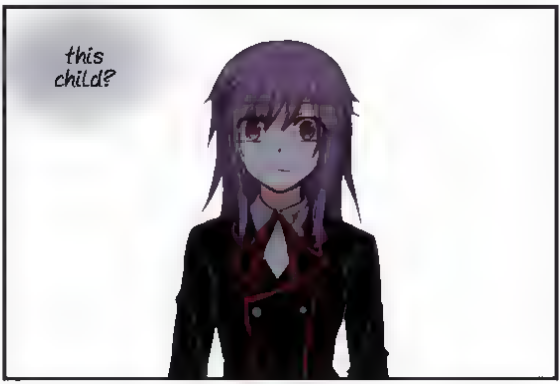
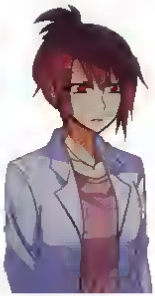
The strange occurrences might have been caused by Karmilla intentionally?

Then what does this mean ?

But before that, can I even trust





.....

What am I thinking?

Um, okay, Seere.

That was some really valuable information. Thank you.

She's just a child.

It's nothing.

Seere, you...
I can't just leave it at this...
This has to be kept secret.

...said that you sympathize with me, right?
If that woman really is Karmilla, then she is an important witness.

...Yes.

Then, could you...
SLIDE-

...perhaps help me out a bit from now on?

It is such a pity, though.

WHY SIR NAVARUS...!?
THE HERETIC TRIAL HAS A DEATH SENTENCE RATE OF ALMOST 100%...!!
It's not just Navarus that's involved.

Angela is the center.

MILLE...
It's unfortunate for Navarus!

If Angela didn't exist, things wouldn't have gone this way...<3

What?
Angela?
Yeah...
We've been monitoring Angela's movement since the day she woke up

Wasn't it Navarus that's been hiding Angela?
SLIDE
Why do you think Navarus is the main target?

TAP
If things continue like this, Navarus won't be able to avoid the heretic trial

Yeah!
Angela is a symbol of unrest.
The last survivor of the annihilated Erzebet...
That clan should've had completely disappeared after an event like that.

BECAUSE OUR WORLD MUST BE ABSOLUTELY PERFECT!!!

GOING ON A RAMPAGE!!
THAT CANNOT HAPPEN!!

However, because of her title as survivor,
I cannot touch her directly.

She is also the sister of the goddess.

But taking the latest information into account, we can't just sit back and watch.

Look at this.
LAND

Those are the rough ingredients and the identity of the medicine...

Angela is researching under Navarus.

This is clearly treason.

This means Angela herself is the evidence of treason.

...But this also means that Navarus would still be fine if Angela didn't exist.
Sylvia.

You can take that and look it over.

a low profile though.

Yeah.
The atmosphere in the student council is rather cold lately.
First of all, Karne's depression is at its peak.

I'm a bit frustrated too~ They had started to communicate just barely thanks to Karne
They're so hostile to each other even though they use the same room

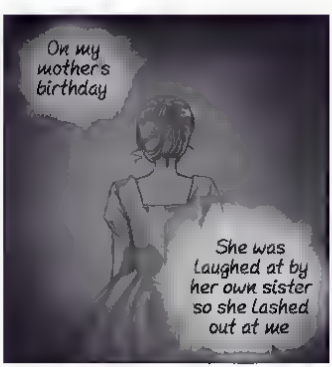
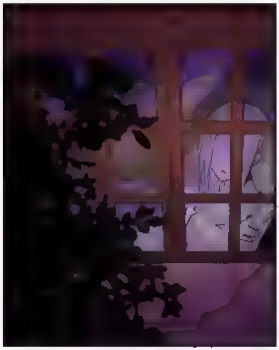
Normally my mother didn't even talk to me
Every time she would only complain

... I can remember almost everything now...
I felt affection towards my mother's back.



On my mother's birthday
She was laughed at by her own sister so she lashed out at me



Mom...

My mother died on her birthday.

Chapter 71

...It disappeared?
Sir Nergal?

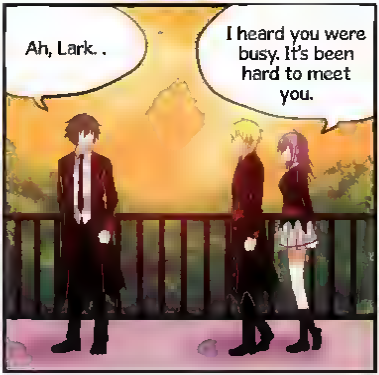
Riu.
You have been spacing out a lot recently. Could it be because of your injury from before...?

Oh, it's not that.
What business do you have?
There was a strange phenomenon where the land at the edge of the region shook...

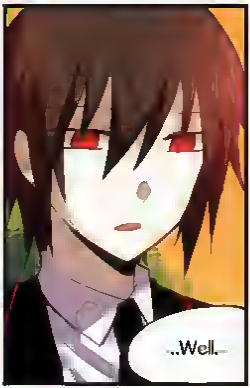
...The 'power' I left behind just in case...

disappeared...?

Oh, it's Setz.
Hey~!! Setz~!!!
Oh.



Ah, Lark. .
I heard you were busy. It's been hard to meet you.



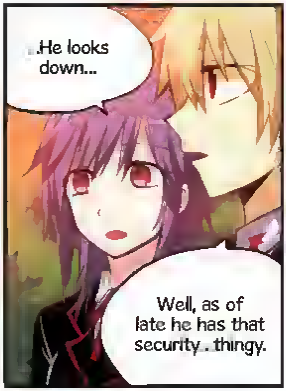
..Well..

Karne is ill again...
The president is?

Wasn't she fine just recently?
Since that day, she hasn't come out of bed.

I can't just suggest to go out and have fun.
Okay.
I hope she gets well fast
Yeah.

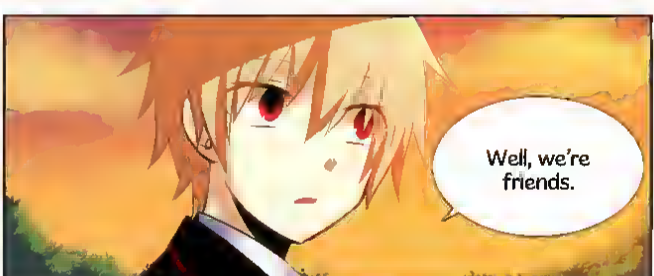
Then.



..He looks down...
Well, as of late he has that security . thingy.

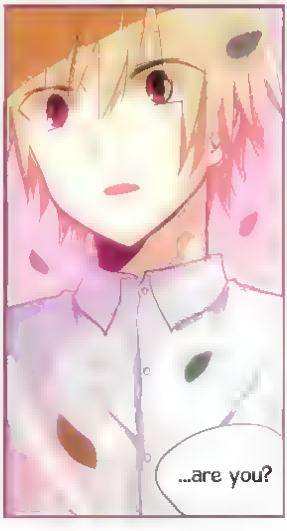
But you seem quite close to him now.
It feels like just yesterday when you asked me about him.

You're right.



It's not that I don't feel a certain distance between us, though...

Who...



You always appear in my dream,
but I forget about you when I wake up

I can only remember it all when I'm in this dream.

Is this the same ability as Bathory's? Is this linking to a dream?

Why are you appearing in my dream?

It's still too soon

You can't remember

Why— why are you like this?

Why are you looking at me like that?

Neal.

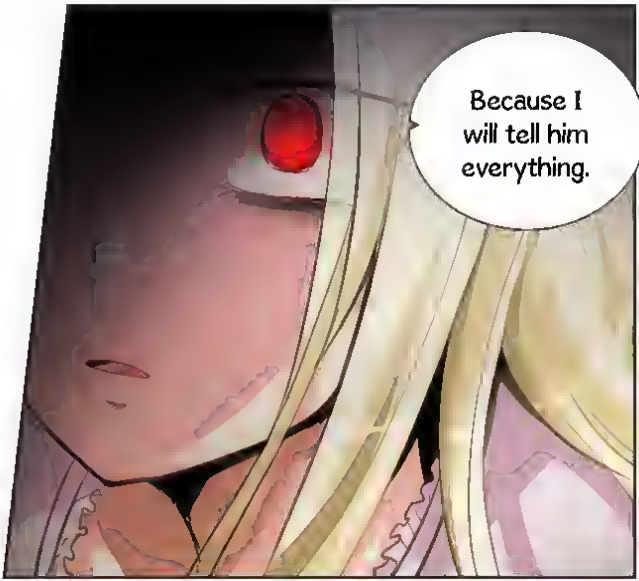
I was always thinking about it.

How can I make her trust me.
Follow me.
Depend on me.
Not be suspicious of me.
And...

...make you to like me.

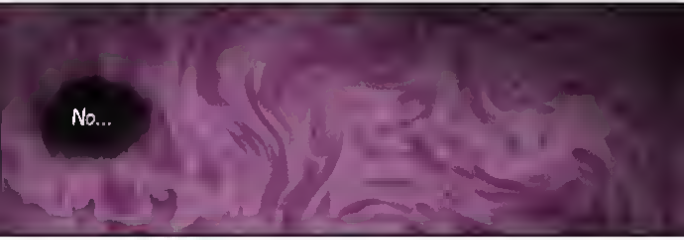
Even without my doing,

you'll disappear on your own.



Because I will tell him everything.

Tell him?



No...

No.
No...

Not Setz

...Now.
How's this...?

From what I've heard from her...

It occurs when she's betrayed by someone she trusts

After being rejected by her mother, she went on a rampage and killed her parents
And now she even absorbed that strange black smoke. She's unstable physically and mentally

It doesn't matter if it fails. I just need to lull her again...
